Sub: Locked AVRWA office by maintenance office and misuse by the maintenance team - reg.

Dear Sir,

Refer to our earlier letter Ref No: AVRWA/14-14/12 dated 28-03-2015 on the above subject, we draw your kind attention towards the non co-operational behaviour of your maintenance team in Amrapali Village. We were very happy to your kind gesture of handing over the RWA office, but it vanished in few months of time and the spoilsport are your own maintenance team. AVRWA office has been locked and the keys are with the maintenance department for more than 6 months and it was found few unknown people are residing in the AVRWA office room with the knowledge and approval of Mr. Pratap Rai.

When we enquired the same to Mr. Pratap Rai (Maintenance In-charge), he was repeatedly telling that he will discuss with the Amrapali Group and let us know. We lodged the written complaint in the maintenance office register and he assured to give the keys of AVRWA office. Till date, there is no response from your maintenance team and the office has been not handed over to us.

It is very surprising to see your own staff doesn't obey your orders or it might be the maintenance team is misused by the anti-social elements and trying to spoil the harmony between the residents and Amrapali Group. We would like to cite the past incident which came in the newspaper also that a criminal has been arrested from our society by the Mumbai police and we all came to know through print media only.

Please refer the letter Ref No: AVRWA/15-16/L38 dated 08-01-2016 addressed to you to advise your maintenance team to inspect and stop the commercial activities, PG activities and any illegal occupancy, etc. Till date, Mr. Pratap Rai (Maintenance In-Charge, Amrapali Group) has not provided the required list and we are defying the OSD, GDA order of this issue. Please look into this serious issue and advice Mr. Pratap to do the needful at the earliest.

We are worried that the AVRWA office issue also might go unnoticed by you, if we do not bring into your purview. Kindly issue the immediate order to your maintenance department to hand over the AVRWA office to us.
